

THRIFT SAVINGS PLAN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK FOR THRIFTLINE INTERFUND TRANSFERS

TSP-32

If you have ever invested any portion of your Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) account in the C or F Fund (using Form TSP-1, Election Form) or made an interfund transfer (using Form TSP-30, Interfund Transfer Request), you have already signed an acknowledgement of risk statement. If that is the case, you are already eligible to use the ThriftLine to make, change, or cancel interfund transfers, and you do not need to complete this form.

If you have not previously invested in the C or F Fund, you must file an acknowledgement of risk statement with the TSP recordkeeper before you can make interfund transfer requests on the ThriftLine. The acknowledgement of risk statement that you sign on this form will apply to all future interfund transfer requests that you make on the ThriftLine. Read this form carefully before you sign it.

Mail the completed form, with your original signature, to:

Thrift Savings Plan Service Office
National Finance Center
P.O. Box 60012
New Orleans, LA 70160-0012

After receiving your form, the TSP will notify you that you are eligible to make interfund transfer requests on the ThriftLine.

Your TSP account is invested for your retirement, and you should make your investment decisions with this long-term goal in mind. Before you make an interfund transfer, carefully review the Summary of the Thrift Savings Plan for Federal Employees so that you understand the possible effects of your decision on your account.

PRIVACY ACT NOTICE. We are authorized to request this information under Title 5, U.S.C. Chapter 84, Federal Employees' Retirement System, Subchapter III, Thrift Savings Plan. Executive Order 9397 authorizes us to ask for your Social Security number, which will be used to identify your account. We will use the information you give us to enable you to use the ThriftLine for interfund transfers. This information may be shared with other Federal agencies in order to administer your account or for statistical, auditing, or archiving purposes. It may also be shared with Federal, state, and local agencies to determine benefits under their programs, to obtain information necessary under this program, or to report income for tax purposes. In addition, we may share this information with the Parent Locator Service, Department of Health and Human Services, for the purpose of enforcing child support obligations against the TSP participant. We may share this information with law enforcement agencies when they are investigating a violation of civil or criminal law. We may give this information to financial institutions, private sector audit firms, annuity vendors, current spouses and, to a limited extent, former spouses and beneficiaries. Finally, this information may also be disclosed to others on your written request. While the law does not require you to give any of the information we are asking for on this form, it may not be possible to process the actions you request by this form if you do not give us this information.
